Sir,

I am directed to state that one Deviri daughter of Parvetamma died in Nanjangud in or about the early part of January 1904, leaving three minor children, one son and two daughters. The Police took possession of the property of the deceased and kept the same in their custody. In Mis No.584 of 1903-4 on the file of the District Judge, Mysore Division, one Venkatalakshamma applied to be appointed guardian and manager of the person and property of the minors but one Nanjamma opposed the application. In an order dated 27th July 1905, the then District Judge Mr. Ramaswamy Iyer appointed the former as ~~provincial~~ provisional guardian and directed the Amildar to forward the property to the District Judge's court to make provision for the maintenance of the minors On receipt of the said property estimated at ₹1811-8-0 the District Judge appointed, by an order of the 7th December 1905, one Anantharamia, Head clerk of his office, who was doing duty as Assistant Nazir, as Receiver to sell the property for purposes of investment. It appears that he sold the property on a close holiday when the then District Judge was in his chambers, but did not pay the money into court nor did he invest it in the Savings Bank. He has since committed suicide. Neither the records connected with the sale nor the money realized in the sale are forthcoming and the attempts of the District Judge to find them have so far proved fruitless.

There is no evidence of any kind to show the actual amount realized by the sale or whether the whole or only tion of the property was sold.

The

The guardian having since applied for funds for the maintenance of the minors, the District Judge reports that he has paid ₹43-9-0 from the amount which was in his court as due to the deceased and he also proposes to utilize for the same purpose another sum of ₹52 due to the deceased official as arrears of pay.

The District Judge considers that a further sum of ₹1900 will be required to be paid to the minors in recoupment of the sale proceeds of the jewels.

Under these circumstances I am directed to request that Government will be pleased to sanction the said sum of ₹1900 as an advance to be hereafter adjusted.

The District Judge has been directed to report as to the official or officer who should be held responsible for this loss to Government and on receipt of a reply from him, a further report will be made.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Registrar.
